

Dear Prof. Daquan Yang,

The Asia Communications and Photonics Conference (ACP) /Information Photonics and Optical Communications (IPOC) 2024 will be held in Beijing during November 2-5, 2024. The conference is hosted by Beijing University of Posts and Telecommunications.

Here, we sincerely invite you to attend this conference and serve as the TPC member of Track 8: Micro-, Nano-, and Quantum Photonics: Science and Applications. It would also be of great assistance to the organizers if you would kindly forward this information to your colleagues and friends who may be interested in this conference.

The conference will discuss the latest achievements and progress in following topics, but not limited to:

Track 1: Optical Fibers and Fiber-based Devices

Track 2: Optical Transmission Sub-systems, Systems and Technologies

Track 3: Network Architectures, Management and Applications

Track 4: Optoelectronic Devices and Integration

Track 5: Microwave Photonics and Optical Signal Processing

Track 6: LEDs, Photovoltaics, and Optoelectronics in Energy

Track 7: Optical Sensors and Biophotonics

Track 8: Micro-, Nano-, and Quantum Photonics: Science and Applications
